

Bandar Alhamidani

Lawyer & Arbitrator

☎: +966 553244474

Academic / professional qualifications

- Master in International Sports Law, ISDE, Madrid.
- Master of Law, Wollongong University.
- Diploma in International Sports Law, Sports Law and Policy Centre.
- Bachelor of Law, King Saud University

Languages

- Arabic
- English

Experience

Bandar has extensive experience with respect to the laws relating to international sports law and Saudi sports law; Bandar represents a number of Saudi sports clubs and Saudi Sporting Federations and advises on international sports law and Saudi Arabian Sports Law. Bandar assisted with the drafting of Statutes and regulations of Sporting Federations.

Bandar has worked and advised on various areas of Saudi Arabian corporate and commercial law in addition to establishing companies and branch offices for foreign investors.

Prior joining the firm, Bandar was a legal advisor at the Chamber of Commerce & Industry in Riyadh where he was responsible for handling a variety of different types of commercial disputes, associated settlement arrangements, and was working on Arbitration cases.

Professional memberships and Seminars and publications:

- Licensed as a Lawyer in Saudi Arabia.
- Licensed as an Arbitrator in Saudi Arabia.
- Chair of the Disciplinary and Ethics Committee of Saudi Arabian Football Federation.
- A member of the Legal Committee at Asian Football Confederation (AFC).
- A member of the Legal Committee at Arab Gulf Football Federation.
- Arbitrator before Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS).
- Arbitrator before Saudi Sport Arbitration Center.
- Arbitrator before National Sports Arbitration Tribunal Kuwait.
- Former Fourth Deputy Chairperson of the AFC Entry Control Body.
- An author of a book, The FIFA Regulations on Working with Intermediaries. It's Implementation at National Level "the Implantation of the FIFA Regulations in Saudi Arabia"